

Aiken County High Schools and the Collegeboard.com are PROUD to offer the Preliminary Scholastic Achievement Test (PSAT) to all current Aiken County high school students!

It helps you prepare for the Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT), and it's a great way to find out your strengths and weaknesses. The PSAT measures:

- Critical reading skills
- Math problem-solving skills
- Writing skills

Test Date:

Wednesday, October 13 (during regular school hours)

Cost:

$13.00

Who should take the PSAT? 10th and 11th Graders

Students planning to attend a four-year college or university should take the PSAT in the fall of your Sophomore and Junior years, so you'll have enough time to work on any areas of weakness prior to taking the SAT.

If you are looking to get in some practice, go to testpreppractice.net/PSAT.

See your school counselor today for registration information.
