

The Gentlemen's and Ladies' Club Induction – November 10, 2010

Fifty Leavelle McCampbell Middle School students were inducted into the Gentlemen's and Ladies' Club. The club will provide these students with support and encouragement for academic achievement, cultural experiences, and self-empowerment. The guest speaker for this event was Stephen Peters, the founder of the Gentlemen's and Ladies' Clubs. He is currently self-employed and works as a motivational speaker on educational topics and he is the owner of the Peters Group in Orangeburg. Volunteers from the school and community will serve as mentors for the students.

Attendees: Monkica Key (Bridgestone staffer), Marsha Harris (retired educator), School Board member Donna Wesby, Superintendent Dr. Beth Everitt, Area 3 Superintendent Dr. Tim Yarborough, and Deputy Superintendent David Caver.

Inductees:

Courtney Bellinger, Hope Blackmon, Kieara Blocker, Mariah Blocker, Kedresha Butler, Car'Dajiah Council, Adriona Dunbar, Breanna Frazier, Leonasia Frazier, Zulema Garcia, Amari Hall, Alice Hewitt, Vonneshia Hill, Brittany Husk, Naujot Kaur, Gonpreet Khera, Leslie Maroney, Sharon Monday, Charisma McKinney, Michelle Morris, Janisha Prescott, Hannah Redd, Katherine Snellings, Casey Wilson, and Shelea Washington

Chris Acevedo, Devonte Arrington, Kameron Brown, Skylar Brown, Patrick Cade, Brandon Cox, Bryan Cox, J'Sun Davis, Ulysses Felder, Jatiner Givens, Trey Lewis, Jaquan McCorkle, Charles Morris, Sean Musiiwa, Nick Myers, Bryant O'Connor, Gerald Oliver, Benjamin Padgett, Antonio Pryer, Brndyn Quiller, Mikal Reeves-Creech, Kartel Smith, Larry Stroman, James Washington, and Aaron Wright.

